LSU HCSD POLICY AND PROCEDURE ON DISPOSITION OF MEDICAL BILLS IN THE SETTLEMENT OF A MEDICAL MALPRACTICE CLAIM OR SUIT

I. POLICY STATEMENT

Upon the request and advice of the Attorney General of Louisiana, attorneys acting on the Attorney General's behalf, or attorneys assigned to defend medical malpractice claims against LSU Health Care Services Division (LSU HCSD), its hospitals, or personnel, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or his designee may waive the medical bills owed by a patient, who is claiming medical malpractice, in exchange for amicably settling the claim.

The request shall be in written form and signed by the requesting attorney. The LSU HCSD CEO or a designee may seek the advice of in-house counsel, hospital administrator, and employees involved in the matter. However, the CEO or designee is not required to consult these parties prior to waiving bills to settle a medical malpractice claim.

Either the CEO or the designee may authorize the waiver and one is not preferential to the other. When neither the CEO nor the designee is available, and there is an emergency, another person may be designated to act on their behalf and shall have authority to authorize a waiver during the absence.

Note: Any reference herein to the LSU HCSD also applies and pertains to Lallie Kemp Medical Center (LKMC).
